A Summer's View

Please design a piece about your summer!

Whether pictures, or writing, or a little bit of both.

The Three Rules:

1. It must always be appropriate.
2. Tell the truth, honesty is important.

I will make an assignment in Google

Issue 1 (Rebooted)

Newspaper Reboot

Hello, and thank you for reading this! I am just rebooting this paper, so it's not the most refined paper (yet), but I am really excited to do this with you guys and my team. We will try our best to write about interesting topics! I will post this every Wednesday before school. I will try to keep you guys up on important news in the world. I would love if you guys would like to join this growing newspaper to expand it! I will take suggestions, articles, or things you want to hear about and try to have an article or snippet about it! Pretty much anything will be taken under consideration. Insights, cool hacks, videos of tricks, and activities or jokes, are also helpful. If tons of ideas and/ or articles come in, it may not appear same week as shared. Please help the Weekly Watchmen grow, together. If you want to do a weekly article or section that would be great or even every other week, we can figure out a schedule. Job comes with no perks, no pay, just fun.
